Cherries from California.

William A, Somers was in New York Thursday doing the weekly buying for Somers Bros. While there he saw a single box of cherries arrive, the first of the season to reach the metropolis from California. It is the custom at the exchange to sell the first box at auction, and very often the eight pounds of cherries it contains are sold at prices from $15 to $20. Somers Bros. have received elegant plums from South Africa, and Long Island spinach is also among the new things.

The Auditorium.

"Fine show" is the vardict by everyone who has visited the Auditorium this week. The appearance of the card bearing the name of the Rice Bross is a signal for a round of applause, calling for the Chinaman and the Rubeto respond to several encores, at each performance. Another winner this week is The Cubanola Trio, who introduce several new melodies in which their voices harmonize beautifully, their concluding number an Indian fantaste entitled Reed Bird, is a whole act in itself.

AT THE BROADWAY.

Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

There are but two more days left in which to see Rose Naynon's trained bird act at the Broadway theater. All local theater goers should avail themselves of this opportunity of seeing the elever tricks that these birds have been taught to perform. Nothing to be compared with it has ever been seen here before. In point of beauty this act excels all. The stage is set with elaborate apparatus and perched in every available place is a tropleal beauty making in all a flock of choice prize birds which are valued by their ewner at $10,000.

HOME GARMENT MAKING. .. The Bulletin's Pattern Service.

LADIES' KIMONO WRAPPER AND SACK.

Paris Pattern No. 2792 - All Seams Allowed.

A slight variation from the usual kimono is here portrayed. The material used in its development is line flannel. The body portion is side-plaited into the yoke at the front and back, giving the effect of a double box-plait. The square Dutch neck is bound with silk a shade darker than the flannel, a similar band trimming the flowing sleeves. A narrow white cord is passed through the straps at the under-sim seams and white pearl autions fasten the wrapper at one side of the front. The model is adaptable to cashmere, albatross, messaine, silk laws or challis, and if a dressing sack is desired the pattern is out off at the perforated line.

The pattern is in four sizes—22, 36,

$2 a Year.

Although the by-laws committee of the Meriden common council will not hold a meeting until next Friday to draft their report on the license amendments, the committee will make a report which will be favorable to the peddiers' side of the controversy.

A license fee of $24 a year is considered unreasonable and the committee will recommend that the council chares the old rate of $2 a year. The amendment making the hours of peddling restrictive will also be cast out. Nevertheless the committee believe that the rending and peddling of commodities Another brilliant success in the moving picture line was introduced at the Breed theater last evening, when the pictorial masterplece was exhibited for the first time in this city. Special Attention To Horse-Buyers And Farmers.

Just arrived today at my stable, three carloads of accilmated horses from the White mountains. These horses were all bought last ran in Canada and were taken over to New Hampshire in the lumber camps. They were worked hard sil winter and grew white. They are all acclimated and ready to go to work. They are fust as good borses as you pay me $500.00 a pair for. Of course, they look rough and hard, but will pick right up when they get into good hands. We can sell these horses from $75.00 to $125.00 apiece, and they are cheap for that price. The horses have just arrived today and they must be sold in the next two weeks. I have sold two hindred and fifty of these borses in the last three mouths and they have given the people actisfaction. New if you want bargains, come to my stables at once and I know that I can make money for you.

You. I have also twenty large draft libraes from the states of Onio and Iowa, and several nice saddle horses, and a carload of nice farm horses. All those horses must be sold immediately. Now is the time to buy.
